A group of four diverse young adults are gathered around a computer monitor in what appears to be a library or computer lab. A man with a large afro and glasses is pointing at the screen. A woman in a blue shirt is leaning in to look. Another man is sitting at the desk, and a woman is standing behind him. The scene is brightly lit and focused on collaborative learning.

The screenshot displays the CSUN Oviatt Library Primo search interface. At the top, the navigation bar includes the library logo, search options (Library Search, A-Z, Citation Linker), and a user profile (Guest ENGLISH). A prominent red search bar contains the text "Search anything" and a dropdown menu set to "Everything".

Below the search bar, there are two informational boxes: "How does this work?" and "Where can I get help?". The "How does this work?" box explains that Primo provides simple, one-stop searching for books and e-books, videos, articles, digital media, and more. It also mentions that Primo helps manage research and lists several actions: Renew books and videos, Create favor, Export citati, and View full sea when you're. The "Where can I get help?" box includes a link to "Ask a librarian how to start your search".

The main search results area shows a search for "aerodynamics" with 22,505 results. The search bar includes a clear button (X) and a dropdown menu set to "Everything". The results are displayed in a list format with the following entries:

1. REFERENCE ENTRY Aerodynamics by Datta, Sreela. Full text available.
2. BOOK Understanding Aerodynamics Arguing from the Real Physics by Doug. McLean 2012. Online access.
3. REFERENCE ENTRY Aerodynamics 2013. Full text available.
4. REFERENCE ENTRY aerodynamics by Gorse, Christopher ; Johnston, David ; Pritchard, Martin 2012. Full text available.
5. REFERENCE ENTRY aerodynamics by Atkins, Tony ; Escudier, Marcel 2013.

On the right side of the results, there is a "Tweak my results" section with a checkbox for "Results Beyond the Library's Collection". Below this are filters for "Sort by" (set to Relevance), "Availability" (Available Online at CSUN: 22,505; Peer-reviewed Journals: 1,847), "Resource Type" (Audio Visual: 21; Newspaper Articles: 342; research_datasets: 69; Books: 2,077; Articles: 2,336), and "Topic" (Insects: 11; Aerodynamics, Hypersonic: 131; Fluid Mechanics: 1,406).

The screenshot shows the ExLibris library homepage. At the top left is the ExLibris logo. To its right is a navigation menu with links for 'Library Search', 'A-Z', and 'Citation Linker'. Further right is a 'Guest' user profile with 'ENGLISH' as the language. Below the navigation is a large search bar containing the text 'Search anything'. To the right of the search bar is a 'OneSearch' dropdown menu and a magnifying glass icon. The main content area is divided into several sections. On the left, there is a 'How does this work?' section with a 'Layout Card' label. This section explains that Primo provides simple discovery searching for books and e-books, videos, articles, digital media, and more. It also mentions that Primo helps manage research and lists several features: renewing books and videos, creating favorites lists, exporting citations to Refworks and Endnote Web, and viewing full search results. Below this is a 'Questions? Comments?' section with a 'Layout Card' label, inviting users to provide feedback. On the right, there is a 'Where can I get help?' section with a 'Layout Card' label, featuring a link to 'Ask a librarian how to start your search'. A dark blue box on the right side of the page contains the text: 'Homepage content in the new UI is managed via a single html page'.

Primo Central

Primo Central – Keep in Mind

- Primo Central contains bib citation records (i.e. serves as index with URL's to the documents in the Primo "Details" tab), Alma delivers the full text of the documents. When you activate a resource in PCI, you are turning on that PCI resource's index.
- Primo Central uses an institutional holdings file from Alma Uresolver to determine what your subscription resources are (in other words, your PCI resources may be "Available" or "No full-text" depending on what coverage dates are authorized by Alma Electronic Collection Portfolio records).
- The source of the bib citation record (i.e. "Details" tab Source field) may not always be where you access full text (i.e. "View It" tab showing Alma resources).
- The resources in the PCI Activation Wizard may not directly reflect the collections you subscribe to.
- Bib citation records that show in the Primo Central results are ones you have full text access to. Use "Expand My Results" option for "No full-text".

Primo Central – Availability Using Institutional Holdings File

Primo Central Index resources which your institution has activated are compared by Primo to the Alma Institutional Holdings file built from the various Electronic Collection Portfolios which have been established, with subscription ranges, to determine if a given article from PCI is available.

EBSCO API

EBSCO API

- The EBSCO API Plug-In is configured for relevant institutions
- The EBSCO API has been added as a separate scope/dropdown

The screenshot displays the EBSCO Primo search interface. At the top, the search bar contains 'Primo' and the selected scope is 'EBSCO Resources'. A search button is visible. Below the search bar, the results are displayed as 'Results 1 - 10 of 101,247 for EBSCO Resources', sorted by 'Relevance'. The results list includes:

- 1 Primo Orpilla and Verda Alexander.

On the left side, there are navigation options: 'Personalize your results' (with an 'Edit' link), 'rss', and 'Add page to e-Shelf'. Below that is the 'Refine My Results' section, which includes filters for 'Subject' (INFORMATION storage & retrieval systems, WOMEN in politics, LIBRARY automation, NONFICTION, ALLUSIONS) and 'Journal Title' (European Review of History, Heythrop Journal, Historian, Idealistic Studies, JAIDS Journal of Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndromes). At the bottom left, there is a section 'on this subject:' with links to 'INFORMATION storage & retrieval systems' and 'WOMEN in politics'.

EBSCO API – Keep in Mind

- Though Primo Central doesn't have EBSCO collections, it does contain many of the publications available through those collections.
- The metadata we receive from EBSCO is limited and cannot be enriched on our end.
- PCI and EBSCO results cannot be de-duplicated.
- Sorting is not available when EBSCO is configured in its own scope
- However, the default setup for the EBSCO API uses a separate search scope rather than blending the results with the other resources in the "Everything" search because:
 - A blended search scope which includes EBSCO API data would suppress all facet counts from the display, due to the way EBSCO data is supplied without frequency counts.
 - When searching facets, and using the "More Options" link to get the "Refine Search" light box, the "Exclude" option is unavailable.

Knowledge Center Article: Search Tips for EBSCO Adaptor in Primo

http://knowledge.exlibrisgroup.com/Primo/Knowledge_Articles/Search_Tips_for_EBSCO_Adaptor_in_Primo

Question:

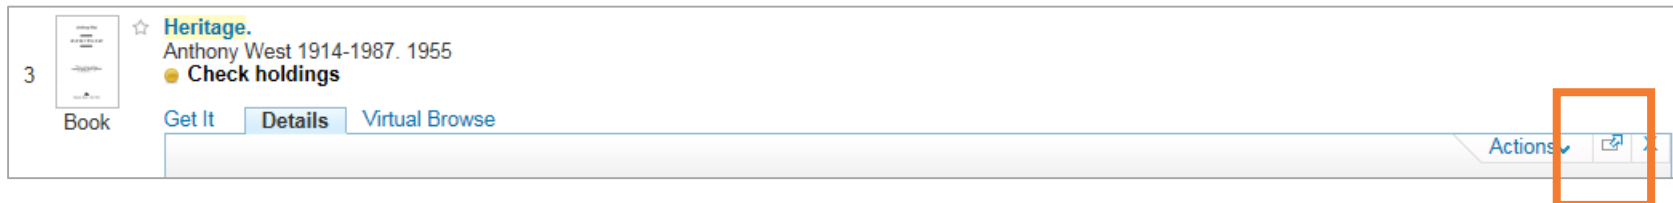

Trying to test the EBSCO API using known items that are loaded into the catalog or SFX. When searching just the EBSCO API in Primo, can't find the items. What are some search tips for the EBSCO API?

Answer:

- EBSCO built the API so EBSCO search logic applies rather than Primo.
- Tip 1: EBSCO interprets multiple words as a phrase while Primo inserts AND between terms.
 - Search: Shakespeare Hamlet becomes 'shakespearehamlet' in EBSCO reducing the likelihood of finding results.
- Tip 2: EBSCO uses single quote rather than double quote marks. Primo can use either.
- Tip 3: EBSCO and Primo can both use Boolean connectors AND, OR, NOT. These must be in all caps.
- Tip 4: Using Primo Advanced Search and training patrons to put single terms or phrases in each line will increase results in EBSCO API searches.
- Summary: Likelihood of success is increased by using Advanced Search or using single quotes for phrases and inserting UPPER CASE Boolean connectors (AND, OR, NOT) between search terms.

&showPnx=true

- In Primo FE, click on 'open this item in a new window' icon:

- Append 'showPnx=true' to the URL
- Confirm recordid:
 - `<control>`
 - `<sourcerecordid>991017132679702907</sourcerecordid>`
 - `<sourceid>01CAL_S_ALMA</sourceid>`
 - `<recordid>01CAL_S_ALMA991017132679702907</recordid>`
- You can view just the PNX record from the Front End
- With the recordid, you can also compare the Primo PNX record to the Alma source record via the PNX Viewer in the Back Office (Publishing > PNX Viewer > enter recordid > Go > View PNX > Compare to Source Record)

Next Steps

Next steps – California State University

Complete configuration workbook:

- Review Alma data in Primo
- Review institution and view settings and fill in institution sheet
- Consider any fields not currently in the PNX record and fill in consortium sheet (refer to &showPnx=true slide)
- Institution: tentatively due August 5, 2016 (workbook will be sent via Salesforce case; ExL will compile responses and send to Discovery Working Group via separate Salesforce case)
- Consortium: tentatively due August 19, 2016 (Discovery Working Group will attach completed workbook to Salesforce case)

Next steps – Ex Libris

- Make adjustments to normalization rules (ongoing)
- Apply changes from configuration workbook (due September 30, 2016)
- Authentication (ongoing)
- Provide full BE access (due September 30, 2016)
- Schedule new UI handoff (TBD)
- Send current and new UI zip files for each view (TBD)
